

Manuscript Submission Form

Article Title:

Corresponding author:

Type of submission

Original Article
 Tutorial

Review Article
 Communication

Case Report
 Editorial

Check Lists

- Cover letter, title page, main body of texts, and figures are prepared on separate files.
- Conflict of interest is described on cover letter.
- Corresponding author's name, address, phone, and e-mail address appear on title page.
- Neither the author's names nor their affiliations appear on the manuscript pages.
- Word limits of the manuscript are verified: 3,000 words for original and review articles, 1,500 words for case reports and tutorials, and 800 words for communications and editorials, respectively.
- Running title does not exceed 40 characters including spaces.
- Structured abstract with 200–250 words.
- Five keywords appear at the bottom of abstract, using MeSH.
- References are in correct format.
- All elements in tables and figures remain legible.
- Figures and illustrations are prepared in high quality with high tones and resolution.
- If a submitted manuscript is a thesis for an academic degree, the student's name, degree type, and the name of affiliated university should be included in the acknowledgement section.
- If a submitted manuscript has been posted on any preprint server, information regarding the preprint should be included in the cover letter, including a link to it and a description of whether the submitted manuscript has been revised or differs from the preprint.